[DE] Die 1996 in New York City, USA, geborene Künstlerin Shanee Roe studierte Kunst und Animation an der Akademie der Bildenden Künste in Wien und Leipzig bei Mentoren wie Daniel Richter und Christoph Ruckhäberle.

In ihren Gemälden und Zeichnungen, die in verschiedenen Städten wie Tel Aviv, Leipzig, Zeitz und Užice, Serbien, entstanden sind, erforscht Roe akribisch zwischenmenschliche Situationen und Formen der Intimität in urbanen und peripheren Umgebungen. In ihren neuen Arbeiten thematisiert die Künstlerin Machtverhältnisse, die von unverblümter Sexualität bis hin zu intensivem Mitgefühl reichen. Dabei hält sie Formen menschlicher Intimität fest, die vom Alltäglichen bis zum Festlichen reichen.

Shanee Roe präsentierte ihre Werke in Einzelausstellungen unter den Titeln "Between You and Me" in The Cabin in Los Angeles sowie "Unter den Laken" im Neuen Kunstverein Wuppertal. Darüber hinaus nahm sie an Gruppenausstellungen in renommierten Institutionen wie der Luce Gallery in Turin und dem Historic Hampton House Museum of Art & Culture in Miami teil.
